Willie P. Mangum to Charity A. Mangum

WASHINGTON CITY. 10th. January 1848.

My dear Love.

It is now Monday night, & I write you but a line to let you know that William & I are well.

I am living in the City, but expect to move tomorrow or next day upon Capitol Hill.- I move on William's account- for the benefit of schooling & the fine Shades in Spring & Summer.

He has not begun to go to school yet. He will begin next week- I shall send to an excellent school, & also he will go to a dancing teacher. I would have put him in a French family in Baltimore, with a son of Reverdy Johnsons to learn French, if he had been willing to go. But he seemed so reluctant, I gave it up.- The weather is very cold, & the mails are most irregular- I have rec<sup>d</sup> nothing from home, in almost a fortnight.-

William gives his love to Mother & Sisters & all- Also mine to you & them.- I send to the post office at once- therefore write no more.

Yr affectionate husband
 WILLIE P. MANGUM
